TUSCARAWAS PHILHARMONIC PERFORMING ARTS CAMP

A thoughtfully designed music enrichment program for young musicians

The TUSCARAWAS PHILHARMONIC PERFORMING ARTS CAMP is a thoughtfully designed music enrichment program for percussionists who have completed grades 6 through 9. With our professional instructors, Thomas Roblee and Joan Wenzel, students will experience and explore classical and world percussion through group lessons and ensemble experiences. They will develop greater skills on the snare drum, timpani, keyboard, and auxiliary percussion; and they will study the music and instruments of Ghana (African drums) and Trinidad and Tobago (steel drums.)

And to top it off, your student will be part of a FREE concert on Thursday evening at the Kent State Performing Arts Center.
