2019 SPRING CONCERTS & EVENTS

Lobby Opener for the Tuscarawas Philharmonic– It is always an honor to be asked to “open” for our host orchestra, especially when they are performing amazing string masterpieces featuring young violinist Kaylee Bontrager and members of the Tuscarawas Philharmonic string camp. Participants and parents will have the opportunity to stay and watch the following unforgettable Philharmonic concert.

Saturday, March 7th @ 6:45

Dress Rehearsal: Saturday, March 7th @ 4:45PM (Dinner provided)
KSU Performing Arts Center Lobby

TPCC Spring “Tour” – We love it when the community comes out to hear us at our various performances through the semester, but we realize that not everyone in our community has that ability and privilege... so TPCC is bringing the concert to them! This day-long event will be spent singing short concerts and doing crafts with residents of local nursing home and assisted living facilities.

Saturday, March 27th from 1:00-5:30pm

Various assisted living and nursing home facilities in Tuscarawas County
*More details coming soon

“Sing Out!” Community Children’s Chorus Festival – TPCC is thrilled to host the inaugural Community Children’s Chorus Festival, which will bring singers from all over the state in to attend workshops and learn new repertoire together with the help of guest and prestigious clinicians Jodie Ricci and Dr. Philip Silvey. You won’t want to miss the culminating concert featuring the world premier of a composition written specifically for the occasion!

Saturday, April 18th – Clinic begins at 9AM, Concert at 6:30PM

First Baptist Church, New Philadelphia
Meals and snacks provided for participants throughout the day.

TPCC in Spring Concert – Featuring a special guest and exciting collaborations, this concert celebrates our hard work this semester and brings our season to a close. In a beautiful setting surrounded by visual art, this will be a treat for all the senses. Don’t forget to stay afterwards for our cookie and punch reception!

Sunday, May 3rd @ 3PM - Dress rehearsal @ 1:30PM
